Property Description

Location: Mijas Costa, Costa del Sol, Málaga, Spain

Completed in 2020, this property has been built to modern specifications of the highest quality. Every detail has been planned and executed with care and is packed with great design features and technology. If you like the idea of a new build property but are concerned about what the finished product will look like or spending the next 5 years on a building site then this apartment is an ideal solution. The property forms part of an established resort which has been operating since 1984 and features bars, restaurants, gym, 4 hour reception, concierge, kids club and so much more.

This modern and luxurious apartment offers stunning sea views from the sleek kitchen island, which makes the kitchen, leading on to the open plan dining area and lounge, the ideal spot for hosting friends and family. The ultra modern kitchen benefits from top quality Miele appliances and top spec fixtures & fittings.

The spacious private terrace, which faces due South and benefits from all day sunshine, has ample room for al-fresco dining and lounging in the sun and even includes a private plunge pool to take the edge off the sizzling summer sun.

The apartment enjoys air conditioning throughout with climate controls, touch panel light control, electric window shades and premium fixtures throughout. Both bedrooms currently have double beds, fitted wardrobes and modern en-suite bathrooms. There is an additional guest bathroom. The apartment also comes with its own private garage space and storage room, both of which are accessible via the lifts. There are two communal swimming pools, one of which is heated, plus a gym and spa facilities.

In addition, the apartment offers excellent rental potential with proven results, meaning that if you want to rent it out when you're not using it, the resulting income will ensure that it costs you little to nothing to maintain.

Call or message us today to schedule a showing as this is a great opportunity that won't be around for long!
